Written through the eyes of a deacon, this study of the permanent diaconate discerns who deacons are in relation to the Church and the service that flows from their interior character—they are ordained ministers, preachers of the Word, and models of Christ. As deacons move along the path of charity, they herald the Good News of Jesus Christ in the world.

Deacons are called to minister to the community of believers, in service to Christ, their bishop, the poor, and the Body of Christ. This narrative takes the reader through Pope Francis's vision for the permanent diaconate. This story reviews the renewal of the permanent diaconate and significant magisterial teachings on the office of the diaconate. It looks at Pope Francis's words as bishop of Buenos Aires and his papal teachings, including his Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium.

This beautiful narrative draws the reader into the sacred ministry of the diaconate and will inspire deacons and all those drawn to the service of charity in the Church.

THE DEACON'S MINISTRY

The Deacon's Ministry explores the three fundamental diaconal ministries identified in the teaching of Vatican II: those of the liturgy, of the Word, and of charity to the people of God (Lumen Gentium 29). This series, written by three highly regarded permanent deacons, offers a rich combination of theology, spirituality, and practical and effective guidance.

Deacons and those in diaconal formation, their families, the bishops and priests they work with, and the people they serve will welcome it.

A SEASON OF LITTLE SACRAMENTS

Christmas Commotion, Advent Grace
Susan H. Swetnam

The lament swells every December, as perennial as the jingle of Salvation Army bells: the season of Advent is lost in the secular trappings of Christmas preparation. For those aspiring to a reverent Advent but caught up in twenty-first-century to-do lists, A Season of Little Sacraments offers a fresh perspective on the secular-sacred December divide.

Susan Swetnam invites readers along on an ordinary woman's day-by-day walk through Advent, demonstrating that the very "distractions" accused of taking Christ out of Christmas can become "little sacraments"—occasions for grace to break through and faith to deepen-- if approached with mindful reflection. For readers who want to experience a truly sacred Advent without fleeing completely from contemporary society. A Season of Little Sacraments will be a welcome source of nourishment and delight. (Lit Press)

A Handbook for Catholic Preaching

Ed Foley, General Editor
Introduction by Timothy Radcliffe

While admitting particular parameters and priorities for Roman Catholic preachers, this volume was intentionally envisioned as a handbook for "catholic" preaching in the broadest and most universal sense of that term. Cosponsored by the Catholic Academy of Liturgy, the Catholic Association of Teachers of Homiletics, and the Federation of Diocesan Liturgical Commissions, it covers the role of the Scriptures in preaching, the challenges of preaching in a digital age, sermonizing in an interfaith context, and the need for a liberative and prophetic word cut across denominations and even some faith traditions. intended to aid those who teach or direct the preaching arts, the design and writing style of this book are particularly calibrated to graduate students in ministerial studies. Every article is a self-contained overview of a particular historical period, genre of preaching, homiletic theory, or contemporary issue. This more encyclopedic approach—devoid of footnotes, yet supported by pertinent bibliography—provides a sufficiently rich yet thoroughly accessible gateway to major facets of the preaching arts at this stage of the twenty-first century. BETWEEN THE AMBO AND THE ALTAR

Biblical Preaching and the Roman Missal Year C
Guerric DeBona, OSB

The publication of The Roman Missal, Third Edition offers an opportunity for homilists to explore the relationship between the Sunday readings and the new Roman Missal. Between the Ambo and the Altar is the final book (Year C) in a three-volume series that presents scriptural, liturgical, and preaching commentary for Sundays, solemnities, and feasts throughout the year.

Each Sunday's resources are presented in three sections: exploring the Scripture, connecting the Lectionary with the liturgy, and a homiletic strategy. DeBona takes the preacher through a meditation on the language of the Missal, suggests parallels to the Sunday Lectionary, and gives practical homiletic strategies using core themes and images. It is hoped that the commentary advances a framework for homily preparation so that preachers might "savor the deep meaning of the word of God which unfolds each year in the liturgy" (Benedict XVI, Verbum Domini 52). MY SACRIFICE AND YOURS

Our Participation in the Eucharist

Paul Turner

The Mass is the prayer of the Church. It's not just the prayer of the priest -- it is our prayer - the prayer of the baptized people of God. As a baptized people, we share in the priestly ministry of Christ! As priestly ministers of Christ, we all share in his sacrifice and unite our sufferings and burdens with his every time we gather to offer prayer, praise, and thanksgiving to him at Mass.

In this short booklet, Paul Turner unpacks the meaning of the sacrifice of the Mass. In pastoral language, he explores more deeply how our participation in the Mass unites us to Christ. Through this guided reflection, we will become aware of the sacrifice Christ made for us, how we participate in this sacrifice each time we gather and participate in the Eucharistic mystery, and how we give back as his disciples.

This booklet may be used at any time during the liturgical year, but is extremely appropriate during the season of Lent. This resource is perfect for clergy, lay ministers and members of the congregation. (LTP)

CONFIRMATION
How A Sacrament of God's Grace Became all About Us
Timothy R. Gabrielli

What are we doing when we confirm teenagers? Why is the religious education of teenagers so perplexing? Why is confirmation often a moment of "graduation" out of parish life?

Confirmation: How a Sacrament of God's Grace Became All about Us tells the story of how confirmation, more than any other sacrament, has interacted with secular culture to give rise to these kinds of pastoral challenges. At the same time, confirmation has, over the course of the twentieth century, become a sacramental stamp of approval for various Catholic renewal movements. (Lit Press)

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: Ritual Edition

The first section of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: Ritual Edition, marking the steps of the spiritual journey into the full communion of the Catholic Church, offers the procedures and periods that make up the full rite. The second section provides the necessary ritual for celebrating the rite in other forms. Three appendices supply additional combined rites and one optional parish celebration; acclamations, hymns, and songs; and national statutes for catechumens. The convenience of the minister has been the guiding principle in choosing the format and designing the presentation of the rites. Each rite is preceded by a short outline, providing a concise overview of the form. The options and alternatives, distinctly indicated, are given within the rite to eliminate confusion. Required readings and psalms are cited only, since, to preserve liturgical norms, they will be proclaimed from a Lectionary or Bible. Ribbon markers and gold-stamped leather-like red cover make this ritual edition a handsome addition to the sanctuary. (Lit Press)

When Other Christians Become Catholic

Paul Turner, STD

Each year, many adults who have never been baptized become Catholic. In the United States, these adults are outnumbered by baptized Christians of other denominations who seek to enter into the full communion of the Catholic Church. In the minds of many Catholics—indeed, in many parish preparation programs—there is little difference between the two groups. Baptized and catechized Christians are often placed in programs with those who have not been baptized. Just as often, the two groups are welcomed into full membership alongside one another during the Easter Vigil, thereby obscuring further the distinction between them.

Turner seeks to clarify and confirm the status of baptized persons who enter into full communion of the Catholic Church. In addition, he explores the rites of reception in the early church and the Second Vatican Council's call for ecumenical dialogue and looks to the reception of other Christian communities to gain added perspective. Year-Round Catechumenate
Mary Birmingham

How does the vision of Christian initiation outlined in The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults fit into a program modeled after the school year? It doesn't, argues Mary Birmingham. The RCIA describes an initiation process that exists at the heart of the Church's life and on the same schedule as the Church: every day, all year long. While that may sound overwhelming and unimaginable, Birmingham carefully explains how it is not only possible but also the best stewardship of the gifts and talents of initiation ministers. She then walks the reader step by step through the periods and rites of the RCIA, providing helpful insight along the way. (LTP)

Palabra de Dios™ 2018-2019 Petra Alexander, Jaime Sevilla, Juan Carlos Farias-Gonzalez

Palabra de Dios™ es una magnífica guía para comprender las lecturas dominicales de las Sagradas Escrituras a lo largo del año litúrgico. Experimentados líderes pastorales de nuestras comunidades católicas nos ofrecen su comprensión de la Palabra y nos impulsan para llevarla a cabo y fortalecer la presencia y misión del pueblo de Dios en el mundo. El libro también ofrece recurso al rico tesoro de las enseñanzas de la Iglesia, así como la oportunidad para compartir nuestra fe católica con otras personas a nuestro alrededor. Además, de los elementos para orar cada día conforme al tiempo litúrgico, Palabra de Dios™ le proporciona las referencias bíblicas para las lecturas litúrgicas de cada día de la semana.

En la portada, apreciamos el momento en el que Moisés conduce al pueblo hebreo a través del mar Rojo en la ruta al monte de la alianza y a la tierra prometida.
